

About us:

Over view:

Pacific Bridge Education and Culture Foundation is a non-profit organization focused on promoting Chinese as a second language programs in North America. Our goals are to:

- Infuse EZ2LearnChinese™ methodologies into the mainstream schools.
- Enable people to embrace the beauty of Chinese language and to appreciate the profundity of Chinese culture.

Founded:

November 14, 2004 @ Fremont, California, U.S.A.

Board member :

- Louise Gu, Founder/ Principal - Long River & Yellow River Chinese Schools
- Daniel Lin, VP-Nat'l Council of Associations of Chinese Schools
- Jiin-Hwa Shiau, Chinese Language Specialist
- Jun-Yin Tsao, Chairman - High tech firm and professional educator
- Lily Wei, President / Founder - Hann-Sing Chinese Association
- Tsai-Wei Wu – Chinese Education Specialist
- Betty Yuan, VP- Nat'l Council of Associations of Chinese Schools

Advisory Board :

- Zhao-Ming Pan, Professor, Peking University, China; Director, Chinese Language Education & Research Center, USA; Sr. Consultant, Nan Hai Arts Center, USA
- Chao Fen Sun, Professor, Stanford University; Chair, Chinese Language Teachers Association of California
- Wei Qun E, Legal Counsel
- Cecilia Pao-Yung Chu, Chinese Language Program Coordinator, U.C. Berkeley
- Theresa Chao, Founder and ex-President of NCACLS
- Ling-Chi Wang, Professor, UC Berkeley

Our program :

EZ2LearnChinese™ program – a program uniquely designed for learning Chinese as a second language. Via this innovated, patent-pending approach, not only instant and solid results can be accomplished, but learning Chinese also becomes easy.